

What is your Story? – Home

Take the time to sit down together and share stories that matter and create something special your family can keep forever.

Writing or drawing these stories will help you capture memories, values, and wishes with the people you love.

What was your home like growing up?

Planning Your Legacy

Making sure your wishes are known, so your loved ones have a clear path to follow.
Making an estate plan can help:

- Ensure your wishes are followed
- Reduce stress for your loved ones
- Protect what matters most

Preparing the following documents protects your wishes and supports your family when it matters most:

- Will – who gets what when you pass
- Enduring Power of Attorney – who manages your finances if you can't
- Enduring Guardianship – who makes health and lifestyle decisions for you if needed

The Public Trustee can help guide you.
